

LARA

Howling winter night winds blow,
Can't go on like this all know –
Freshly fallen frozen tears,
Have and have-not hemispheres.

Stepping unexpected from the wings,
Marked presence true love brings –
Skies pastel / rivers edge place,
Sacred dignity a human face.

Enduring relationships / disciplined mind,
Shelter the homeless altruistic kind –
Feelingful / responsible / unstructured,
At this critical historic juncture.

Waffles / frites / coffee and chocolate,
Diamonds / dinner / garden inlet,
Scarves / music / floral bliss –
What planet desire you more than this?
