

Molly

One take on your Starlight tale,
A World draped white in Winter veil –
When high up cold met water and dust,
Left sculpted drifts, swirls of trust.

You're at home in a snowflake dance,
Making dream from happenstance –
In solitude, yet never alone,
Timeless Spirits / cloud linked phone.

Strong, persistent, non-stop learning,
Difficult times / mountaintop yearning –
From your depths a complex reply,
Maturity, responsibility, what they imply.

Lucky the sparrow in your rescued hand,
Unconditional Love / unexpected land –
Change is really the most common of things,
And you've a say in what this time brings.
