Summer moonlight in winter shadow,
Ocean memory night made hallow –
Breaking waves ivory shoreline,
Locates unending / invokes divine.

In your world more than visible's real,
Scientifically minded heart that feels –
Living with subject centers omnipresent,
Your own ways engaging the Referent.

Before language beyond the known,
Enveloped in wonder you call home –
Down to business hardworking soul,
Concrete intellectual teacherly role.

Adapting evolving discerning sight,
Might be our last chance to get it right –
Imagine equality / how Love might look,
Judge the pathway our choices took.
