

Indigo

Left the gate to your heart unlocked,
Where your mind with morning walked –
Pebbles / feathers / footprints / signs,
Sculpted driftwood / remembered times.

Becoming day / horizon bending,
Singular Spirited / warmth unending –
Summer eyes diaphanous wings,
A Real the moon in forgiveness brings.

As when Love made something matter,
The sea swells / waves gather –
Watery shadows softly crashing,
Random moments sunlight flashing.

Worried sandpipers / narrative bouquets,
Earth needs your compassionate ways –
To surry down / embroider nightfall,
Answer the children's quiet call.
