

Leon

hours of miles childhood slow,
River spills into valley below –
Ruffles edge the widened sky,
Planet home / hearts sigh.

Quantum physics / post modern themes,
Imagine a World answers in dreams –
Nest woven with meaning and tears,
The road stretches / disappears.

The orchestra tunes / a chord emerges,
Definitive / clear / Nature surges –
In daylight and when night descends,
A sea sparkles / paradise attends.

Mix persistence with reason and rhyme,
A bend in Eternity / a fragment of time –
Given the magic / the whole complex,
Why not swords into plowshares next?
