

Laurie

Heaven reports a moment stolen,
Belongs to her with voice golden –
Just one listen when she's on stage,
Makes you feel another age.

Some say it's her sisterly presence,
Others her business sense essence –
Power to dream make things real,
Honest true aware the deal.

If you want to know, were truth all out,
Turning her key's what she's really about –
The whole wide world locked out of love,
Need an angel with eyes from above.

Who else bring such warmth and grace,
Return to mind eternal trace –
In words as clear as can be spoken,
Come back home to fix what's broken.
