

Mélanie

SHades of green veil her world,
Cradle longing memories swirled –
Calling softly aesthetic attention,
Interweave another dimension.

STORIES of home / fun family trips,
Tender thoughts / warm relationships –
Tufts of sea grass / golden sand,
Pastel umbrella / mother's hand.

Were musical staves summer trellis,
Heart shaped leaves tendrils tell us –
Morning glory changing blue,
Entwining in divine milieu.

Besides information / reasoning real,
Hers is a world that you can feel –
Freedom craves honesty most of all,
At issue equality after all.
