

Ringo

RIVERS they say he comes from –
Rush o'er rocks in solar rhythm,
BURST in momentary symphonies,
Hold late summer epiphanies.

OUTSIDES wailing sirens alarms,
INSIDES beaches swaying palms –
Everything moonlight ever meant,
Where ever after and would-be went.

LEARNED his way into these parts,
How to whisper half tame hearts –
BORN with skills to lead and create,
Planetary family celebrate.

LUNAR mind sparkling clear,
You think therefore needed here –
SATURNS contribution to the fractal,
"Come on baby, let's get practical."
