

Anna

MORNING Sun, still wet fields,
Children running laughed and squealed –
Grasses, clover, queen anne's lace,
Welcoming glances / face to face.

Puffy clouds, slow butterfly wings,
Abuzz with news daybreak brings –
Lifelong dialogue engaging Creation,
Reason and feeling symbiotic relation.

Talking it over / favorite window table,
One who eludes every label –
Skillful storyteller enchanting effects,
Things happen no one expects.

Many occasions to be honest,
Given Humanity at this pass-fail test –
Similar yet different than moments before,
Each time Equality / Truth opens the door.
