Emergent earth child garden lover,
Meandering millennia your heart discover –
You in your living galactic nest,
River innocence every cell attest.

Sis at the grave/aunt at the cradle,
Honest talk cross the kitchen table –
Informed intelligence/warmth you can feel,
Argues for equality/fairness made real.

Summer afternoon surry down,
Honey bees in clover sound –
Wading knee deep Queen Anne's lace,
To your favorite picnic place.

Cracks in the concrete/glass reflections,
Your own conclusions/dot connections –
Change is needed everyones aware,
Only altruism will get us there.
