Canyon hallways drop off cliffs,
Hairpin curves transmission shifts,
White water rapids boulder strewn river –
Shadows creep/aspen quiver.

Your art speaks to being human,
Dimensions/multiplicities/reason illumine –
Compassionate/responsible/father swoon,
Summer warming wintered cocoon.

Homework help/hand holding hands,
Bedtime story ampersands –
The children trusting look to you,
Explain it all/madness cut through.

A space opens you pull off to the side,
Break down narratives/quell fears sighed,
Enter the savior who just won't give up –
Is that coffee or magic in your cup?
