

Brandi

Flickering light forest shadows,
Steps from where the path narrows –
Name sung by fir and pine,
Messenger in garden time.

Water earth and imagination,
Pragmatic intelligence in concentration –
Biological dialogical reconnection,
Never again this intersection.

Storyteller eye with tear,
Voice words sign system mirror –
Love letters already written,
Sun and moon heart smitten.

Blue star sapphire white gold ring,
Adapting talking touching everything –
“It’s honesty,” Saturn states openly,
“Many occasions to turn your key.”
