All it took were your love letters,
Imagining the world come together,
Reminding where our summer went –
How time flies meanings bent.

Logical abstract crystal clear,
Good at metaphor genius mirror –
Unbelievable beauty thin layer of dust,
Serious case of wanderlust.

Heart and soul just like your writing,
Open source adaptive wiring –
Stretching narratives folding some,
Eclectic concentric changing outcome.

Could be tomorrow's availability,
Hinges on a possibility –
Something we've not tried before,
Knock again on heaven's door.
