Braided violets clover wreaths,
Sleeping beauty fairytale beliefs –
Given way to mothers hours,
To the children super powers.

Family visits driftwood shores,
Tiny hands woven in yours,
Grocery shopping keeping books –
Storytelling times nights last looks.

A gift for making conversation,
Adjustments suggestions adaptations –
Moods that tell us how you feel,
How love matters whats really real.

Jupiter answers, "It's honesty,"
Saturn terms it fairness and equality –
Who knows the depth of trouble we're in,
If we can't alter wall streets spin.
