

Fergie

Lost all track of time she said,
Wading sparkling riverbed –
Dreamed Earth newly woken,
Lark ascending words unspoken.

Possibilities heaven represents,
Pleasure equality sweet innocence –
More flowers than ever names,
Rescue from fear greed and shame.

Blossom showers without warning,
High energy from early morning –
Ways once thought could never be,
Kindness compassion new kind of free.

Vaguely recalls about some dues,
Reality depends on what you chose –
Listen invest take seriously consider,
What pay attention to in time deliver.
