

MARGARET

Window wet remembered stare,
Piercing insight moment shared –
Veins of lightning sleeping skies,
Reminding us unbreakable ties.

Darkness hail shaking thunder,
Wind driven rain veiled wonder –
How far go for love of You,
Aldebaran if that's a clue.

All a stage the bard was right,
Act I revelations Act II plight –
Omen now fast approaching,
Global warming storms encroaching.

If fairy godmother one possible wish,
Not a world-changing magic swish –
Just all with hearts rich with wealth,
Restoring each other Earth her health.
