Bells toll night sky entwine,
Garden shadows unmistakable signs,
Clouds blush/eyes give pause –
Mind burning with a higher cause.

Some say it's the quaking aspen,
Shaking their leaves making it happen –
Betting on friendship going viral,
Tigerlily wild even more than normal.

No news he's the daring type,
Arms wide open/straight/no hype –
You'd think equal justice would be easy,
But this world's facts make a champion queasy.

Once upon a time raised by eagles,
Orphan of mountain vistas/unbelievable –
Curtain parting now on the denouement,
Quick, baby. What is it you want?
