

Bill

Oh mercy how'd it get so late,
One long line a dream in wait –
Elephants polar bears spotted owls,
Friends chat the wind howls.

Clouds tumult branches sway,
Leaves cascade visions play –
Holding him in highest esteem,
Knows what love and trusting mean.

Symmetrical reasoning honest free,
Committed deeply to equality –
A universe few ever dare,
Energy to take you there.

Caring kind to the very end,
Every tear wanting to mend –
If you would the water cross,
Only way not count the cost.
