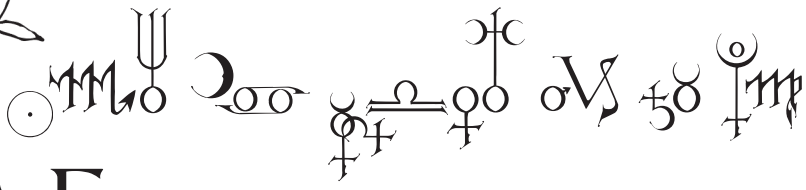
Cindy



Falling leaves floating secrets,
Summer passes without regrets –
You've been making wild wishes,
Coming true in hugs and kisses.

Part familiar part emerging story –
Quantum leap beyond yesterdays glory,
Swimming the edge of visibility,
In the moonlight naturally.

A modern mystery angels delight,
Living breathing through the night –
Your favorite twist no one guesses,
Come Act III the ego confesses.

Now getting to what everyone knows –
Whatever it is with you it grows,
In mega watts of cosmic confluence,
And rock and roll us innocence.
