In Self reflecting stellar MIRROR,
Working to bring a better World nearer –
A parent's answering / espousing ideals,
That it wouldn't be easy came with the deal.

Too many secrets to begin counting,
Leaves falling / drama mounting –
A mysterious, magical, moral element,
Speaking part in the Entanglement.

Echoes abound in ancient scrolls,
Autumn trees in celebratory roles –
Summer memories / modern fairytale,
In Winter mountains the Holy Grail.

Who could believe what Act III would deliver,
Bones roll over, ghosts shiver –
Just as we were starting to iron things out,
Self-over-Others spew discord and doubt.
