Soaring as only Eagles can,
Lifting fingers, tipping hand –
Marvel, balance, radically honest,
Listening, looking, a serious quest.

Everybody knows that something's wrong,
All hear her cry, know her song –
Settling in the Cottonwood she waits,
To open the incomprehensible Gates.

Self-reflective, highly critical,
Feeling and intuition set to analytical –
A caring, nurturing, cooperative Love,
Perfect stand-in for the role of dove.

Studied history, believes there's Truth,
A real advocate for the voting booth –
How it begins, when does it start,
Such are her choices, that's her part.
