

Paul

All he knew the children were needing,
Too honest to deny their cries the bleeding,
Or maybe SIRIUS spirit moved him –
However got out there on that limb.

Balancing issues judging narratives,
Living connections transcending imperatives,
When false proves false and true comes true –
MARS urges try something new.

High in a treetop a hawk observed,
A human dignity personal reserve,
A cause a love straight and narrow –
Competence goals actions followed.

Harmony and Justice were still abed,
Peace too so the herald said –
“This the garden this incarnation,
Your nests as good as its foundation.”
