Venus befriended you from the start,
An aesthetic Soul, a careful Heart –
Sensible, balanced, you like it straight,
To be the Judge, a Libra's fate.

From West Texas bars,
To restaurants five stars –
Honest, Free Spirit, envoy of Peace,
From narrative chains a dream's release.

Things can stretch even your patience thin,
Everybody knows the trouble we're in –
Anthropocene Act One was wholly disastrous,
Act Two has opened and it comes down to us.

How paths cross, good question to ask,
Before that though, there's one key task –
For Equality, climate crisis, a long list of reasons,
Should Truth matter, it's the voting season.
