For millennia Earth's patiently waited,
Whispered wished for anticipated –
Calling to the humans in music and dance,
Wake to our Being, understand this Chance.

Early autumn deserted park walk,
Winding pathway place to talk –
Careful, thoughtful, undisguised speech,
Spheres where art and friendship reach.

Nurturing, worried, altruistically inclined,
Keeping promises, enchanting time –
A love of mystery, attentive to detail,
At a tipping point, none want to fail.

Standing there deconstructing the Play,
Engaging with the World an Other way –
Including the Animals, Plants, All around,
Edging the moment when lost gets found.
