Soft clouds blue sky racing,
Slow pirouettes Chopin spacing,
Ne'er a planet more perfectly timed –
Late summer Nature's mind.

Globally networked stardust world,
Mother's caring feelings swirled,
Finned furred shelled feathered –
Wonder fits it all together.

Just as careful her transactions,
Real personal interactions –
Sparkling windows spotless floor,
Place for everything maybe more.

Concerned searching informed eyes,
Visions of paradise no surprise –
When with kindness looks your way,
Nested moment forever stay.
