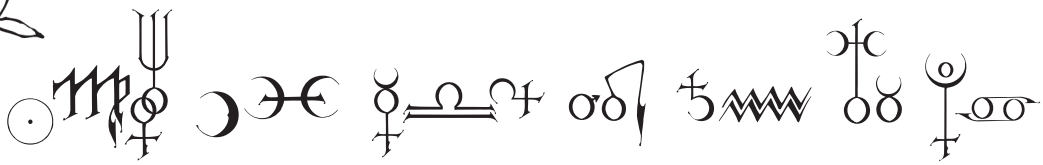
Leonard



Like this maybe twice before,
Late afternoon white laced shore –
Dreaming everything we would,
Never asked knew we could.

Sea breeze air seriously free,
What then fairness equality?
Adding Buber to Copernicus,
Spinning out a world of trust.

Neat and tidy well organized place,
Black walnut table porcelain vase,
Everywhere reminders of Romantic lands –
Mediterranean cafés Egyptian sands.

Saturn suggests about your time,
If serving others you'll do fine –
Giving gifts being kind,
Changing pathways in your mind.
