Calling from stories long telling Ourselves,
In museums, galleries, on screens, shelves –
A Presence carried by silver chimes,
There in both joyous and crisis times.

Pattern finder, Peace loving, more than able,
Mountain Moon, a place at the table –
Equality for you is elemental,
Free to be responsible fundamental.

Engaged in dialogue/entangled in mystery,
Inflection point in human history –
All acknowledging worrisome trends,
Nobody sure how this one ends.

In Planet's courtroom, the voting booth,
We'd still be in the cave, if not for youth –
Night's not over/you still have a say,
What vision would you the light of day.
