

MARILOU

Lined envelope sky blue note,
Elegant hand someone carefully wrote –
Kept it with her ribbons and lace,
Next to her locket special place.

Worried organized perfectly honest,
Always on time trying her best –
Looking for patterns emergent order,
Loving interactions where edges border.

Lingering on details nothing missed,
Tiniest thing giving the picture a twist –
Her world however another matter,
Empowered people opting to scatter.

Only one thing she could do,
Keep in mind the whole night through –
“Nothings impossible / you’re not alone,
The choices you make are all you own.”
