

Willard

Sunset peach and lavender sky,
Sliver of moon to mystify –
Sacred imaginary/immanent grace,
Perfect human to plead the case.

Free minded/careful/honest,
Recent Earthling subject guest –
Galactic reason/unveiled sentiment,
Truth's true lover unrepentant.

You could teach us things you know,
Why nurturing/where the hours go –
Why truth matters/or laws/or accuracy,
Whence the value creating democracy.

World not activating a sustainable narrative,
Nor prophesying successful alternatives –
Saturn in Aries says start something new,
If peace and happiness to make it through.
